

PUBLIC PROCUREMENT AUTHORITY
Self-Contained Breathing Apparatus (SCBA) Solicitation Synopsis
Solicitation No. 1610

Intent

The Public Procurement Authority (PPA) served as Lead Agency to solicit proposals for Self-Contained Breathing Apparatus (SCBA). PPA works in cooperation with National Purchasing Partners "NPP" and its Government Division dba NPPGov, dba FireRescue GPO and dba Law Enforcement GPO (collectively hereinafter "NPPGov"), to service the PPA and NPPGov membership. The published Request for Proposal (RFP) contained provisions that permitted all members of PPA and NPPGov throughout the nation to "piggy-back" off the resulting Master Price Agreement.

Determination for issuing RFP vs. Sealed Bid

PPA has determined that it is advantageous for PPA to procure Self-Contained Breathing Apparatus (SCBA) using the competitive RFP process rather than sealed bidding. Sealed bidding limits evaluation of offers solely to compliance with the requirements, provides no opportunity to compare the product and service offerings among the vendors, prohibits revision of the offers, and uses price as the predominate deciding factor. Such limitations prevent PPA from awarding the most advantageous contract(s) for PPA and its members.

Procedure

PPA issued an RFP (1610) on October 26, 2016.

The RFP was published in the Daily Journal of Commerce on October 26, 2016.

The RFP was published in USA Today on November 2, 2016.

The RFP closed on December 12, 2016.

The RFP was awarded on May 15, 2017.

The RFP was posted to the following web sites: www.nppgov.com, www.ppa-or.gov, and www.findrfp.com

The text of the published notice of solicitation is as follows:

Cosby's latest hearing yields no decisions, resumes Wednesday

Brittany Horn
The (Wilmington, Del.) News Journal

NORRISTOWN, PA. It will be at least eight months before Bill Cosby is brought to trial on sex-assault charges. And in the meantime, teams of lawyers are battling over crucial evidence issues that both sides say could make a difference in whether or not that trial is fair.

The latest pretrial hearing in the case got underway Tuesday before Judge Steven O'Neill.

Cosby, 79, is charged with three counts of aggravated sexual assault in connection with a 2004 encounter at his nearby home with former Temple University employee Andrea Constand.

Tuesday's proceedings, which took place partly behind closed doors, concluded with O'Neill instructing Cosby's lawyers to provide factual proof of the many statements they have made in documents submitted to support their various motions to dismiss the case.

O'Neill said statements that can't be backed up will be stricken from the record, and the remainder will be argued when the hearing continues Wednesday. Also on Wednesday, the court will deal with Cosby's motion to dismiss based on the 12-year delay between the encounter with Constand and Cosby's arrest, and the possible prejudicial effect of that delay.

The upshot is that the most controversial aspect of the case — the prosecution's effort to call 13 other Cosby accusers to testify against him at trial — may not be dealt with until another set of pretrial hearings in December.
